

Quality policy

LAVET Ltd. is committed to deliver safe and effective veterinary products to the patients and consumers which is the core mission of the company in accordance with our Code of Conduct. To meet this commitment, LAVET Ltd. has established and maintains a quality-focused culture to ensure the highest focus on the safety, efficacy, quality and reliability of our products, the safety of our patients and consumers, the compliance with applicable regulatory requirements, the integrity and quality of our data supporting release decisions, regulatory submissions and communications with our stakeholders. The leaders of our company are fully committed to maintain a quality culture that supports to develop and implement appropriate processes, promote quality-focused behaviors and ensure that patients and customers are in the focus of the decision-making process including the highest product quality, safety which protects the reputation and business of LAVET.

Each employee of LAVET is accountable for ensuring product quality, data integrity, patient and consumer safety. Quality Policy is implemented through a comprehensive Quality Management System. The performance of the system is monitored and regularly reviewed to ensure that standards meet the company's expectations of the highest level of quality for our patients, customers and stakeholders, and facilitate continuous improvement.

Managing Director

Quality Manager